Re: Are You Interested in a Collab With a Great Online Sportsbook Brand? Hi again

Just popping into your inbox to check if you've been receiving my emails okay?

Are you open to working together on this project? Please let me know either way.

Kind regards,

Hi there

I just wanted to drop you a quick email as I reached out a little while ago but haven't yet heard back.

I'm really keen for us to work together - are you interested in collaborating on this project? Or perhaps we could work together on a guest post for my client instead?

Hoping to hear back from you.

Kind regards,

Hi there,

I hope you are doing well.

I'm Tara and I'm working on a really exciting project with a huge fantasy sports brand. I was doing some research into other websites and came across yours. I think your website would be a great fit for my client.

Would you be interested in linking to my client? If so, could you please advise of any costs for doing this?

Thank you for your time - really hope to hear back from you soon.

Kind regards,
